Same unit.
Two descriptions.

One was written to fill a page in the handbook. The other was written by someone who had to sit the exam.

WHAT THE HANDBOOK SAYS

This unit introduces students to core theoretical frameworks and their practical application. Learning outcomes are assessed through a portfolio of individual and collaborative tasks.

On completion, students will be able to critically evaluate key concepts and communicate findings to a professional standard.

Prerequisite: nil. Credit value: 25.

WHAT THE STUDENTS SAY

★★★★☆

Content is genuinely good. The group assignment is 40% and you get allocated randomly, so start it in week two and do not wait for your group.
